

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES
MRS KATHRYN GREINER AO

Kathryn has had the opportunity to contribute in a wide range of leadership positions in public and private companies, government bodies and non-profit organizations.

Her current portfolio:

- Chair Paediatrico Ltd a consortium of Cancer Research and Treatment centers for Children and SCHN, USYD and UNSW
- Chair Pennington Institute Australia's pre-eminent harm minimisation for Drugs education program.
- Chair Ministerial Advisory Council on Ageing (MACA) providing advice on issues and concerns of older NSW citizens to the NSW Government.
- Chair Lifestart Co-op Ltd a Disability support service
- Chair Mary Ward International Australia (MWIA) the overseas aid agency for the South East Asian and Australian Province of the IBVM Sisters (Loreto).

Kathryn has also participated in or led Inquiries into Education: the Gonski Review and NSW Catholic Funding Review and is currently leading a Review into Retirement Villages in NSW. Her corporate board experience has been in media, financial services and services provision.

Her professional history has been in Social Work and Early Childhood Services as well as media roles at Radio 2UE and Channel 10. From 1995-2004 Kathryn was an elected Councillor to the Sydney City Council. She is the recipient of an Order of Australia (AO)

Kathryn holds a Bachelor of Social Work (UNSW) Certificate in Early Childhood (Macquarie University) and was awarded a Doctor of Letters (Honoris Causa) from UNSW.